*What is the difference between invitation and evangelism?
How does it affect the way we do ministry?
How can we invite the community to participate in the gospel of Jesus Christ?*

- Build collegial relationships and friendships with pastors across the ocean.
- Wrestle with current and relevant issues important to the ministry of the church.
- Explore new possibilities by sharing cross-cultural experiences.
- Take field trips together to sites that exemplify issues of study.
- Share in worship, meals and fellowship together.
- Accept hospitality from Lancaster churches who will offer meals and fellowship.
- For German pastors: Take advantage of a Home Stay Option. Spend the weekend before and after the Colloquy with an American family.

“When you open your doors and invite someone in, you can be sure you will be changed!”
